Amusing Incidents In Stafford.

Stafford C. H., Va., Jan. 12th. Mr. Jno. E. Beale, of Hartwood, was here yesterday on legal business Many people, thinking there would be a January term of the Circuit Court attended here last Monday Among the number were Messrs W. B. Jones, F. W. Baber and others. Treasurer Reamy sold some land for delinquent taxes, but most of the land returned delinquent has been innd returned delinquent has been redeemed.

At the dance given last Monday night there were several amusing lacidents. A couple of gentlemen in attendance, upon arriving opposite the hall, deposited a bottle in the honeysuckie vines, there to stay until being prompted by the spirit they would imbibe, thereby invigorate and enliven the inner man. They had no sooner made their deposit and departed than with one fell swoop a couple of the thirsty denizens of this vale of tears bore down, captured the bottle and departed to quench their thirst. In a few minutes the owners of the bottle appeared, when alast their receptacle was only the place of departed spirits. Remarks being strictly in order such was made as the occasion demanded.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
